To our honourable lawyer.

Dear Sir,
Thank you for representing me and my son Vimal in the Dominic Dixon-UNADAP case.

I will be unable to present myself in court on the 14th instant. I am completely blind in my right eye from glaucoma, have undergone open heart surgery and am a patient of ankylosing spondylosis, an autoimmune disease which is progressive, incurable and debilitating. The bones of my neck, spine and hips are 95% fused and I can hardly walk at home. Leave alone travel. My wife, 75, is currently being treated for cancer.

I am in what Catholics call “full time ministry” since 1995 or thereabouts. My web site was launched in 2003. It is directed at Catholics to warn them of the dangers of what Catholics perceive as “occult” and contrary to our Faith. It carries the opinions of eminent Catholic writers.

The web site exposes, from a Catholic perspective, all type of spiritual error: “New Age”, catechetical, liturgical, doctrinal, etc. Dixon is only one of the hundreds of Catholics who are reported on my web site. Dixon is unhappy because there are 16 files under his name at my web site. The last one was uploaded in NOVEMBER 2017. [One therefore wonders why he woke up to file this case four years later, but I have a theory about that].

Dixon is far from being the only Catholic reported on by me. There are dozens of other what we call “lay” Catholics and scores of priests, bishops and even cardinals. There are 3000+ files critical of Pope Francis, the head of the Catholic Church. And a large number of leading Catholic organizations, institutions, retreat centres, religious orders, etc. So it is not as if I am specifically targeting any individual... Dixon for instance.

My reports are strictly objective; there is no personal bias or subjectivity. I do not seek any benefit whether pecuniary or publicity. In fact, my ministry makes me a lot of enemies [although large numbers of Catholics worldwide appreciate my truthful and hard-hitting exposes]

All of my reports, including the ones on Dixon, are produced on the basis of what is available in the public domain – I print and on social media/the Internet. Or they contain documentary evidence provided by others to me. All of my the contents of my reports are thus fully authenticated, and, until today, 19 years later, not one single Catholic individual, lay or clergy or their related organisations has challenged the veracity of my reportage. Everyone knows that if I write, it is 100% reliable.

In comparison, many of the allegations in Dixon’s plaint are pure fabrication and can never be substantiated by him with documentary evidence. They exist only in his mind and wishful thinking, and are used by him to harass the other party with loads of (false) statements. It has always been the case with a lot that he puts up on his web sites and blogs. He concocts the most brazen lies and presents them as facts. One day, when his minions find out that I have exposed them, they will
